6 days Faculty Development Program
on Application of AI in Civil Engineering by Academics and Industrial Experts from 4th to 9th December 2023.

DATED: 4th to 9th December 2023

DEPARTMENT: Department of Civil Engineering

VENUE: Auditorium, Google Meet

OBJECTIVES: To share knowledge and make faculties aware about ongoing upgradation in civil engineering and its applications in Artificial Intelligence. To increase creative skills and imaginative power to express their views and thoughts in terms of a presentation and question answer sessions. To build a gap between industry and academics.

Resource Persons: Prof. (Dr.) Sanjay Kumar, Dr. Kavita Verma (DI), Ms Niharika Sharma (Event Coordinator), Ashish Juneja (Neev Coordinator)

ACTIVITIES UNDERTAKEN: Department of Civil engineering (NEEV official society of civil engineering department) organized a 6 days faculty development program on “Application of Artificial Intelligence in civil engineering. More than 30 faculties actively participated in this program. Six Prominent speakers from industry and academics were speakers for various sessions. Below are the details of all prominent speakers

Date	Speaker
04/12/2023	Mr. Abhishek Patel Lecturer Department of Electrical Engg. The London College, University of Derby
05/12/2023	Dr. Nandan Dawda Assistant Professor CEPT University, Ahmedabad
06/12/2023	Dr. Amit Kumar Department of Information Technology Associate Professor ADGIPS
07/12/2023	Dr. Pinky Nayak Department of Information Technology Associate Professor ADGIPS
08/12/2023	Dr Sangeeta Malik Associate Professor MAIT
09/12/2023	Dr R P Singh Director New Delhi DataPoint Pvt. Ltd working in the area of Data Science ML AI and IOT and Robotics

OUTCOME: Faculties were enlightened by various topics like Importance and Development of AI, Application of Fuzzy Logic in Civil Engineering, Introduction and Development of Artificial Intelligence in Engineering, Sustainable Technology for Peace in the world, Use of IOT in Engineering. Basic concepts of AI were explained and how this technology can be used in civil engineering for various projects.

Experts for the event: Dr. Kavita Verma (DI), Ms Niharika Sharma (Event Coordinator), Ashish Juneja (Neev Cordinator)

Beneficiaries: All the faculties and staff.

The poster features a header with the logos of Dr. Akhilesh Das Gupta Institute of Professional Studies and BBD. The main title is 'Department of Civil Engineering organizes Faculty Development Program'. The event topic is 'Application of Artificial Intelligence in Civil Engineering' from '4th to 9th December 2023' in hybrid mode. It lists three speakers: Prof. R. P Singh (Director, New Delhi DataPoint Pvt. Ltd), Dr. Nandan Dawda (Assistant Professor, CEPT University, Ahmedabad), and Mr. Abhishek Patel (Electrical Engg Dept., The London College, University of Derby). The venue is Auditorium and the time is 2:30 pm onwards. The poster ends with five stars and the hashtag #ShapingGenerations.

Dated: 24th February to 28th February 2023

Department: Department of Civil Engineering

Venue: Rishikesh, Uttrakhand

Objectives: To train the students about the different techniques and methods involved in surveying, as per the University curriculum.

Activities undertaken: Department of Civil engineering organized a five day “Survey Camp” for the students of third year T-9 and T-10 to understand and implement the knowledge of survey on the field in Rishikesh, Uttrakhand. The students learnt the working of instruments in the college campus under a training camp, from 20th February to 23th February 2023. The activities at the camp included the following:

- Selecting a traverse
- Division of students into groups
- Use of Instruments to efficiently survey the traverse
- Plotting the traverse onto the graph

Resource Person: Dr. Sanjay Kumar (Director), Dr. Kavita Verma (DI, Civil), Mr. Parasram Pandit (Survey Camp Coordinator)

Outcome: Young Engineers were benefitted by obtaining advanced knowledge of the advanced instruments such as total station and electronic theodolite. The camp also benefitted the students to understand the role of team work.

Beneficiaries: Students of third year (T-9 and T-10)

MARKET SITUATION BEFORE COVID 19

- Civil engineering is expected to be very popular because existing structures will require replacement. In this technologically advanced world, with population growing and infrastructure aging, civil engineers will expect to have a steady employment in the future. However, exact numbers of civil engineering jobs will depend on a country's construction needs, which indirectly rely on the economy.
