

NEWSLETTER

Campus Update

- The month of April at ADGIPS was marked by impactful initiatives and intellectual engagement through the successful आयोजन of the “Akhil Jyot Blood Donation Camp’ and the “E-Summit”. These events reflected the institute’s commitment to social responsibility and innovation. The Akhil Jyot Blood Donation Camp witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty, and staff, all coming together for a noble cause. The camp aimed to raise awareness about the importance of blood donation and encouraged individuals to contribute towards saving lives.
- Adding to the academic and professional exposure, the E-Summit provided a dynamic platform for aspiring entrepreneurs and innovators. The event featured engaging sessions, discussions, and activities focused on entrepreneurship, startups, and leadership. Participants gained valuable insights, interacted with like-minded peers, and explored new ideas, fostering a culture of innovation within the campus. Together, these events highlighted the holistic development approach at ADGIPS—blending social awareness with intellectual growth—while encouraging students to actively contribute to society and embrace new opportunities.

NEWSLETTER

Campus Update

- The campus of ADGIPS came alive in February with “UTKARSH”, the Annual Cultural Fest, organized alongside the much-awaited “SPORTS MEET”. The combined celebration created an electrifying environment, bringing together students from all departments to showcase their talents and competitive spirit. Utkarsh featured an exciting lineup of cultural events, including dance, music, dramatics, and fashion shows. Students captivated the audience with their creativity and performances, making the fest a vibrant and memorable experience.
- The event served as a platform for artistic expression and highlighted the diverse talents within the institute. Complementing the cultural festivities, the Sports Meet encouraged participation in various indoor and outdoor games such as cricket, football, athletics, and badminton. The successful execution of both events was made possible through the dedicated efforts of the organizing team and faculty members. Together, Utkarsh and the Sports Meet not only provided a refreshing break from academics but also promoted holistic development and strengthened unity among students.

